

Advocates for Hope

Power-based abuse in Texas must end. But we can't stop it alone. By becoming an Advocate for Hope, you'll be showing your community that abuse of any kind –emotional, financial, physical, and sexual–cannot be tolerated. Texas Advocacy Project's mission is to prevent domestic and dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking through free legal services, access to the justice system, and education. Our services work. Join us in our vision that all Texans should live safely in hope, not fear.

We applaud the dedication of our 2017 Advocates for Hope in transforming the lives of victims into survivors, and we are honored to highlight their service during the Black & White Ball, presented by Accenture.

Awards

Mike A. Myers, GENEROSITY OF SPIRIT

Generosity is the most natural outward expression of an inner attitude of compassion and loving-kindness.

- Dalai Lama XIV

The GENEROSITY OF SPIRIT Award recognizes an individual or family who has had a significant impact on The Project through volunteerism, contributions as a fundraiser, or as a major contributor to our services.

This year The Project is delighted to recognize Mike A. Myers for his contributions to our organization. Mr. Myers embodies a "Generosity of Spirit" to many non-profits, but his financial support to the Project has been truly impactful as 100% of these funds go directly to survivor services. For over 50 years, he has consistently made significant contributions to education institutions, medical facilities, and now civil legal services for survivors of domestic and dating violence, sexual assault and stalking. In fact, Mr. Myers has recently donated $1,000,000 to The University of Texas at Austin School of Law for a scholarship program to fund a first year law school graduate to work at Texas Advocacy Project every year for the next seven years.

Awards

Justice Harriet O'Neill, VISION

More is required of public officials than slogans and handshakes and press releases. More is required. We must hold ourselves strictly accountable. We must provide the people with a vision of the future.

- Barbara Jordan

The VISION Award recognizes a leader or organization committed to ending power-based personal violence in Texas.

This year we are pleased to honor Justice Harriet O'Neill. Justice O'Neill retired from the Supreme Court of Texas in June 2010 after nearly 12 years of service. As an active member of the Texas Access to Justice Commission, she played a significant role in helping to expand access and reduce barriers to justice in civil legal matters for the poor. One of her key initiatives was the development of multi-lingual, self-help legal tools for victims of domestic violence. Justice O'Neill spearheaded the Supreme Court's creation of, and Chaired, the Permanent Judicial Commission for Children, Youth and Families, whose mission is to improve the safety, permanency and well-being of children caught up in the child-protection system. While on the Court, she was appointed by the United States Attorney General to the National Advisory Council on Violence Against Women. For all of these reasons, we are thrilled to honor a true visionary leader, Justice Harriet O'Neill.

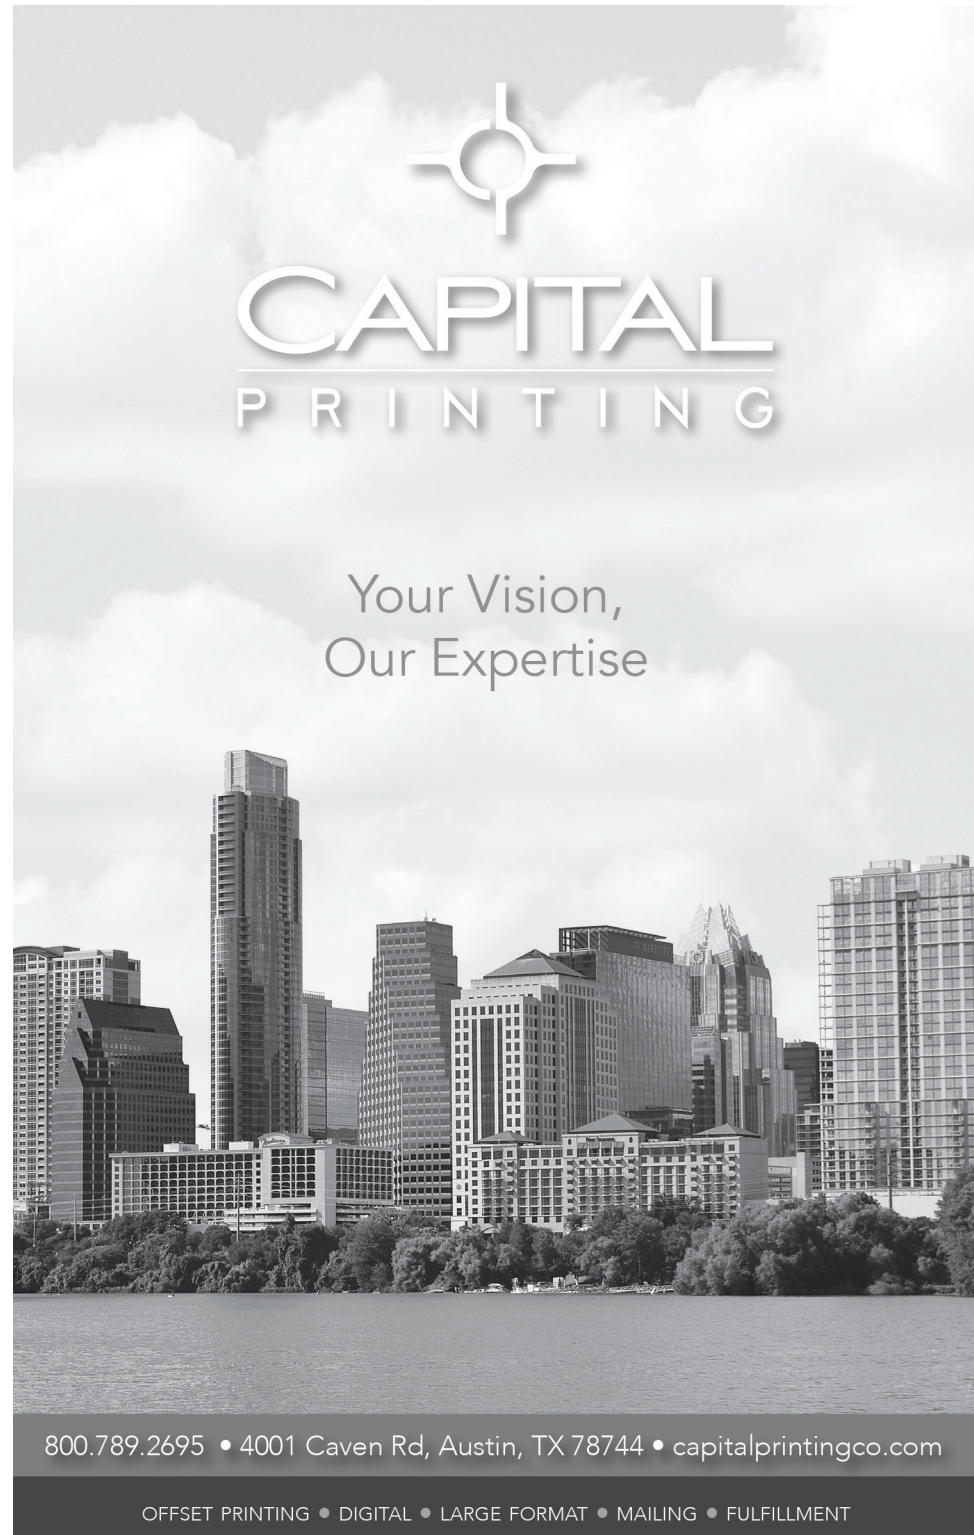

Valerie and Morghan, COURAGE

I learned that courage was not the absence of fear, but the triumph over it.

- Nelson Mandela

The COURAGE Award recognizes a former client who has demonstrated the courage to leave their abuser and create a healthy, productive, and secure life.

This year The Project honors both Valerie and her daughter Morgan whose journeys illustrate the power that legal solutions have in ending unimaginable violence. Like any mother Valerie was worried when Morghan's behavior started to change, but never imagined it was because her own husband had been hurting her daughter. Though devastated Valerie sprang into action and called the police and protected her family. For free, The Project got Valerie a divorce so she would no longer be tied to her daughter's abuser, a protective order for Morghan so that he couldn't retaliate against her for telling, and a termination of his parental rights so co-parenting would not be required in the future.

Texas Advocacy Project

Texas Advocacy Project is committed to achieving its vision that All Texans should live safely in hope, not fear. Our legal services assist thousands of victims of domestic and dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking each year, including many children who are directly in harm's way. The following is a brief overview of Texas Advocacy Project's services:

LEGAL LINE

Attorneys offer free legal advice regarding protective orders, divorce, child custody and visitation, child support, grandparents' rights and other issues related to domestic and dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking.

DIRECT SERVICES/IMPACT LITIGATION

The Project provides direct legal services to some clients when their cases are too complicated to navigate alone. Occasionally we find that for some the barrier to justice is too high. When this occurs we file impact litigation to ensure courts are fairly serving survivors.

ASSISTED PRO SE

This service supports clients in representing themselves. Attorneys are able to provide free, individualized legal assistance by preparing customized legal documents, offering ongoing legal advice, and giving detailed instructions to survivors about how to represent themselves in any hearing.

EMERGENCY PROTECTIVE ORDERS

This service is only offered in Travis County; however, training is available statewide on best practices regarding Magistrates Order for Emergency Protection. Attorneys work with local law enforcement and the judiciary to assist victims of power-based abuse in the hours immediately following an arrest. Attorneys discuss legal options, including options of protective orders and safety planning.

SURVIVOR SERVICES

This service provides the necessary tools for long-term safety and starting a new life including economic abuse services. Some of the tools we provide are safety plans, shelter location, and referrals for help with mental, physical, and emotional healing. Our Survivor Services team can also help with accessing Crime Victims' Compensation (CVC) and Texas Victim Information & Notification Everyday (VINE) services and registration.

OUTREACH

Everyone deserves safety and has the right to live free from fear. The process may feel overwhelming and scary, but Texas Advocacy Project is with you each step of the way. We engage in targeted outreach to communities who may experience power-based abuses but who do not self-identify as survivors or have the know-how to navigate the civil justice system. These groups include teenagers, university students and staff, those with language barriers, hospital staff, and others.

TRAINING

The Project provides free training to judges, prosecutors, attorneys, advocates, law enforcement, and allied professionals across the state. Our trainings are offered both in-person and through webinars. We are able to offer participants CEU's and CLE's when necessary. For more information on our training services and topics available please visit: www.TexasAdvocacyProject.org

7th Annual Hope for the Holidays Toy Drive

Please help make this year's holiday season a little merrier for one of the families Texas Advocacy Project has served this year. The families who will be "up for adoption" have recently -or are currently- making the heroic step of getting free of abuse. Each year The Project's staff attorneys nominate a client whom they believe could use some extra help during the holidays. These families are transitioning from a home filled with violence to one of safety and security. It goes without saying that this transition poses many difficulties, not the least of which is financial. When you contribute, please know you are helping families who have already taken important steps to break the cycle of violence.

To ensure delivery before Christmas, everything must be collected by Friday, December 1st so we can wrap and ship the gifts by December 15th, in time for holiday delivery.

For more details about the Hope for the Holidays campaign, visit www.TexasAdvocacyProject.org or email JPaez@TexasAdvocacyProject.org.
